

5 maart 313 Law 3: To Philip, vicar of the city CTh 10.4.1 Dorries p. 163-164 Threatening treasury officials who harass subjects with public burning. Apr 30, 313-Oct 8, 316 Inscription at Lavinium AE 1984,151 Gruenewald 270 Restoring the bath. Apr 30, 313-Oct 8, 316 Inscription at Thessalonica AE 1933,251 Gruenewald 398 Apr 30, 313-Oct 8, 316 Inscription at Golmarmara TAM V 645 Gruenewald 462 Apr 30, 313-Oct 8, 316 Inscription at Tunlu-Bunar CIL III 7170; EE V 177, 1399 Gruenewald 467 Apr 30, 313-c. 321 Inscription at Migennes AE 1983,701 Gruenewald 17 Apr 30, 313-c. 321 Second inscription at Mascula CIL VIII 17681; EE VII 330, 737 Gruenewald 112 313 Letter to Caecilian, bishop of Carthage HE 10.6; EH 7.42 Silli 2; Dorries p. 17-18 Giving money to be distributed to the ministers and permission to request more for them if necessary. c. May 313 Letter to Miltiades, bishop of Rome, and Marcus HE 10.5.18-20; EH 7.43; HD App 13 Silli 3; Dorries p. 20-21 Asking them to preside in Rome over the case of Caecilian. June 1, 313 Law 4: To Eusebius, governor of Lycia and Pamphylia CTh 13.10.2 Dorries p. 164 The tax privilege of Diocletian is renewed. June 13, 313 Edict of Constantine and Licinius about the freedom of the Christian religion HE 10.5.2-3; EH 7.41; LAC 48.2-12 Silli 4; Dorries p. 228-232 Enumeration of religious freedoms. July 21, 313 Law 5 Frag Vat 34 Dorries p. 164 Ordering a right of redemption for boys sold as babies. Aug 10, 313 Law 6 CTh 7.21.1 Dorries p. 164 Declaring it intolerable that people claim military status who never "saw battle, watched the standard, or bore arms". 29 augustus 313 and 4 februari 337 Law 7: To Rufinus, the praetorian prefect Frag Vat 35 Dorries p. 164 Against deceptive selling practices—Constantine affirms that being himself innocent he is unable to suspect deceit in others. 31 oktober 313 Second letter to Anulinus HE 10.7; EH 7.42; HD App 16 Silli 5; Dorries p. 18-19 Clergy are exempt from all political duties. Oct 31, 313? Law 8 CTh 16.2.1 Dorries p. 165 Instruction to replace a particular official vexed by heretics and prevent this kind of thing from happening in the future. 27 december 313 Law 9: To Claudius Plotianus, commissioner of Lucania and Bruttium CTh 11.29.1 Dorries p. 165 The emperor is only to be consulted in difficult cases.
---	--	--	--	--

313 Law 10

Frag Vat 33 Dorries p. 165

Freeborn children may not become slaves.

313-315 Law 11

CTh 6.1.1 Dorries p. 165

The "gates of dignity" should not stand open to those who are excluded "from the association of the honest" through any kind of stigma.

1 januari 314 Law 12: To Maximus, prefect of the city

CTh 9.5.1 Dorries p. 165-167

1. Accusers who do not provide sufficient proof are subject to more severe penalties.

2. The men behind the accusers who do not prove their case should be found so that his co-conspirators also are punished.

3. Certain categories of men must not be allowed as accusers and if they seek to accuse they should be punished instead of heard.

4. If a slave or freedman tries to accuse their master, they should be bound in the stocks and not heard.

5. No anonymous accusations can be entertained.

Early 314 Letter to Aelafius, vicar of Africa

HD App 3 Silli 6; Dorries p. 21-24

Caecilian and others are directed to attend the council of Arles.

Early 314 Letter to Chrestus, bishop of Syracuse

HE 10.5.21-24; EH 7.43 Silli 7; Dorries 24-28

Commanding another synod to be held to resolve dissensions among the bishops.

19 maart 314 and 1 juni 315 Law 13: To Volusianus and to

Amabilianus, prefect of the provisions

CTh 13.5.1-2 Dorries p. 167

Ship captains are bound to their profession.

1 april 314 Law 14: To the consular Junias Rufus Aemilius

CTh 4.13.1 Dorries p. 167

A woman who of her free will marries a slave forfeits her own and her children's freedom, but if it happens against her will she will be vindicated by the appropriate severity of the laws.

1 april 314 Law 16: To Probus

CJ 6.1.3 Dorries p. 168

Apprehended slaves trying to run back to barbarian lands should either have their feet cut off or be sent into the mine.

Apr 24, 314 Law 15: To Volusianus

CTh 5.8.1 Dorries p. 167-168

Whoever loses his freedom will receive it back without a lawsuit.

Severest punishments threaten those who try to hold in bondage someone wrongfully enslaved.

May 15, 314 Law 17: To Dionysius

CJ 3.1.8 Dorries p. 168

In all things justice and fairness take priority to the letter of the law.

Aug 314 Letter to the bishops after the Council of Arles

HD App 5 Silli 8; Dorries p. 28-33

Commending their faith and lamenting that those condemned in ecclesiastical courts are appealing to civil courts.

Oct 29, 314 Law 18: To the well-deserving Palatines

CTh 6.35.1 Dorries p. 168

Not only clergymen but also palace officials receive immunity "from all vulgar and personal duties."

Nov 3, 314? Law 19: To Catalinus

CTh 9.40.1 Dorries p. 168

The death penalty should only be used for adultery, murder, and sorcery in cases of confession or certain evidence. Jan 22, 315 Law 21: To Constantius CTh 8.5.1 Dorries p. 168 Forbidding bringing plough-oxen though an imperial post. March 21, 315 Law 22: To Eumelius CTh 9.40.2 Dorries p. 168-169 People condemned to the games or the mines should be branded in the hands or calves, not the face, which is formed in the image of the heavenly Son. Apr 28, 315 Law 82: To Constantius, the praetorian prefect CTh 8.4.1 Dorries p. 187 Repealing previous anti-military legislation and releasing soldiers from service after 20 years. May 10, 315 Law 23: Edict to the Africans CTh 8.4.2 Dorries p. 169 Military riots are punished by death. May 13, 315 Law 24: To Ablavius CTh 11.27.1 Dorries p. 169 Outlawing parents from killing their children and appointing funds to care for children. June 17, 315 Law 20: To Proclianus CTh 11.1.1 Dorries p. 168 Delineating privileges for catholic churches and his sons' father-in-law, the King of Armenia. Aug 1, 315 Law 25: To Domitius Celsus, vicar of Africa CTh 9.18.1 Dorries p. 169-170 Slaves and freedmen guilty of kidnapping are thrown to the animals and freeborn guilty of kidnapping are condemned to the gladiatorial games with no possibility for resistance. Aug-Sept, 315 Letter to the Donatist bishops HD App 6 Silli 9; Dorries p. 33-34 Reaffirming that Caecilian is to be tried before him in Rome and not in Africa. Oct 1, 315 Law 26: To Crispinus CTh 12.1.2 Dorries p. 170 "The form of public law must be observed". Oct 18, 315 Law 27: To Evagrius CTh 16.8.1 Dorries p. 170 Sets burning as the penalty for Jews who stone a Jewish convert to Christianity as well as for those who convert to a corrupt sect. Oct 27-Nov 19, 315 Letter to Probianus, proconsul of Africa AUG 88.5; CC 3.70.81; CPD 32.55; HD App 14 Silli 11; Dorries p. 33, 37 Requesting Ingentius to come to Rome and put to an end the attacks against Caecilian. Nov 8, 315 Law 28: To the proconsul of Africa CTh 8.10.1 Dorries p. 170 People who feel themselves discriminated against by tax authorities or lower judges should prove it in court. Late 315 Letter to Celsus, vicar of Africa HD App 8 Silli 10; Dorries p. 34 Instructing him to hold off in dealing with Caecilian until the emperor himself come to Africa to judge him. Feb 3, 316 Law 29 Frag Vat 249 Dorries p. 171
---	--	--	--	--

Gifts made for religious reasons are exempt from the recording of donations. May 14, 316 Law 30: To Titianus CTh 8.5.2 Dorries p. 171 Animal abuse is threatened with demotion or deportation. June 8, 316 Law 31: To Maximus, prefect of the city CTh 4.8.1a Dorries p. 171 Approving the freeing of slaves in the catholic church. Nov 10, 316 Fragments of a letter to Eumlius, vicar of Africa CC 3.71.82; CPD 33.56 Silli 12; Dorries p. 37, 37-38 Reporting the controversy concerning Caecilian. Jan 19, 317 Law 32: To Octavian, count of Spain CTh 12.1.4 Dorries p. 171 Career offices should only be paused. March 1, 317-c. 321 Inscription at Florence CIL XI 6671a Gruenewald 333 Restoring the path. March 1, 317-321 Inscription at Cherson GAH 57 Gruenewald 404 March 1, 317-326 Inscription at Algeria CIL VIII 8370, 20211 Gruenewald 86 Restoring and dedicating bridges. After March 1, 317 Second inscription at Rome CIL VI 1148-1149, 31247 Gruenewald 250 May 23, 317-319 Law 33: To Bassus, the praetorian prefect CTh 9.16.3 Dorries p. 171-172 Magic done to harm is punished but magic done to help is not. July 21, 317 Law 34: To the People CJ 4.21.15 Dorries p. 172 Documentary evidence has as much value in litigation as witness testimony. July 21, 317 Law 35: To the Bithynians CTh 10.20.1 Dorries p. 172 A minter must remain as such. c. 317-Sept 18, 324 Inscription at Aquae Iasae CIL III 4121, p.2328/114; ILS 704; AIJug 469 Dorries p. 226; Gruenewald 379 Restoring from fire damage. June 23, 318 Law 36 CTh 1.27.1 Dorries p. 172-173 Judges should let matters be settled by Christian law where possible and consider those decisions inviolable. Nov 16, 318 Law 37: To Verinus, vicar of Africa CTh 9.15.1 Dorries p. 173 Anyone who murders parent, sibling, or child will be executed by being sewn up alive in a sack with snakes and thrown into the sea or a pit. Feb 1, 319 Law 38: To Maximus CTh 9.16.1 Dorries p. 173 Condemning soothsayers to be burned and those associating with them to be banished to an island and their things confiscated. March 29, 319 Law 39: To Verinus, vicar of Africa CTh 9.34.1 Dorries p. 173
---	--	--	--	--

Anonymous informants should be tracked down, forced to give proof, and then punished.

Apr 24, 319 Law 43
CTh 5.27.1 Dorries p. 174
Habit and custom have authority but not so much as to overturn reason and law.

Apr 27, 319 Law 44: To Rufinus, the praetorian prefect
CJ 6.22.5 Dorries p. 174
Eunuchs are allowed to testify in court.

May 11, 319 Law 45: To Bassus
CTh 9.12.1 Dorries p. 174
Masters can physically discipline their slaves but may not kill them or treat them barbarically.

May 15, 319 Law 47: To the people
CTh 9.16.2 Dorries p. 175-176
Forbidding soothsaying from being practiced in individuals' homes.

May 30, 319 Law 48: To the provincials
CTh 10.1.3 Dorries p. 176
Even the claims of the tax officials expire after a prescribed period of time, silencing the accusations of private citizens.

Oct 12, 319 Law 49: To Bassus, the praetorian prefect
CTh 3.17.1 Dorries p. 176
Stressing the earlier provisions made for the benefit of dependents

Oct 21, 319 Law 50: To Octavian, commissioner of Lucania and Bruttium
CTh 16.2.2 Dorries p. 176-177
Clergymen in Lucania and Bruttium were to have all gifts removed to prevent envy from interfering with their ministry.

Dec 1, 319? Law 51: To the people
CTh 10.10.2 Dorries p. 177
Threatening to cut out the tongues of accusers and execute them.

Dec 26, 319 Law 52: To Proculus
CTh 4.17.1 Dorries p. 177
Defining the precise process for new motions.

Jan 31, 320 Law 53: To the people
CJ 10.19.2 Dorries p. 177
Supervision for executing sentences.

Jan 31, 320 Law 54: To the people
CJ 6.23.15 Dorries p. 177
Wills should not be invalidated because of poor form.

Jan 31, 320 Law 55: To the people
CTh 8.16.1 Dorries p. 177
The single and childless are freed from the "imminent terrors of the laws."

Feb 1, 320 Law 56
CTh 4.4.1a Dorries p. 177-178
Proper will form is not necessary as long as its intent is apparent.

March 1, 320/326 Law 57: To governor Florianus
CTh 7.20.2 Dorries p. 178
Outlining the way in which the troops are to greet the emperor.

Apr 1, 320 Law 58: To the people
CTh 9.24.1 Dorries p. 178-179
Sentencing those who abduct brides to execution, brides willingly abducted to execution as well, and complicit parents to deportation.

Jun 30, 320 Law 59: To the accountant Florentius
 CTh 9.3.1 Dorries p. 179
 Making strict provisions for the ethical treatment of people awaiting trial.

July 18, 320 Law 60: To Bassus, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 16.2.3 Dorries p. 179-180
 Elaborating on a previous edict, now lost, that decurions, their descendants, and people with sufficient wealth for public office should not from that point on enter the clergy.

Aug 18, 320 Law 61: To Bassus, prefect of the city
 CJ 1.51.2 Dorries p. 180
 Farms cannot be bought without an appraisal.

Dec 4, 320 Law 41: To Januarinus, the acting prefect
 CTh 9.34.3 Dorries p. 174
 Libelous reports are to be burned.

Dec 17, 320/321 Law 62: To Maximus
 CTh 16.10.1 Dorries p. 180-181
 Soothsayers are to be sought when lightning strikes the palace or another public building.

Jan 23, 321 Law 63: To Severus, prefect of the city
 CTh 6.22.1 Dorries p. 181
 Preventing the purchase of offices freeing one from curial responsibility.

Feb 6, 321 Law 64: To Claudius, governor of Dacia
 CTh 2.19.2 Dorries p. 181
 Disinherited sons may contest the will on the condition that they gave no reason for such repercussion.

March 3, 321 Law 65: To Elpidius
 CTh 2.8.1a Dorries p. 181
 Courts and business are to take Sunday off, but those who work the land may work on that day.

July 3, 321 Law 66: To Elpidius
 CTh 2.8.1 Dorries p. 181-182
 Courts and businesses are closed on Sundays because they lead to disputing, but slaves can still be freed.

Apr 11, 321 Law 67: To Menander
 CTh 15.1.2 Dorries p. 182
 Arranging an observation of the structural condition of the public works.

Apr 18, 321 Law 68: To Maximus, prefect of the city
 CTh 4.8.1 Dorries p. 182
 Clergy have the ability to grant slaves freedom.

Apr 18, 321 Law 69: To Maximus, the praetorian prefect
 CJ 7.1.4 Dorries p. 183
 Naming the regular times of liberation, later added to by the Church.

May 5, 321? Letter to the bishops of Africa and the people of the catholic church
 HD App 9 Silli 13; Dorries p. 38-39
 Granting toleration to the Donatists and instructing the people to win them over with patience.

July 1, July 13, and Aug 1, 321 Law 70
 CTh 4.14.1-3 Dorries p. 183
 Protecting citizens from tax officials who threaten them with death or perpetual exile.

July 3, 321 Law 71: To the people
 CTh 16.2.4 Dorries p. 183

Anyone can leave anything to the "most holy, catholic, and venerable council" in their will.

Aug 1, 321/324 Law 72: To Volusianus
CTh 13.3.1 Dorries p. 183-184
Doctors, grammarians, and other teachers or tax-exempt. Slaves who do anything to them must be whipped or required to pay a fine. They are allowed to hold office but cannot be forced to do so.

Aug 29, 321 Law 73: To Verinus
CTh 2.24.1 Dorries p. 184
Wills not written in entirely proper form are to still be considered in dividing up inheritance.

Dec 11, 321 Law 74: To the decurions of Cologne
CTh 16.8.3 Dorries p. 184
Jews can be appointed to city councils.

Feb 9, 322 Law 75: To Agricolanus
CTh 9.1.3 Dorries p. 184
Outlining a woman's right to prosecute in court.

July 6, 322 Law 76: To Menander
CTh 11.27.2 Dorries p. 184-185
Parents too poor to raise children should not sell them but instead be supported by the state.

Oct 30, 322 Law 77: To Maximus, the praetorian prefect
CTh 9.38.1 Dorries p. 185-186
In honor of the birth of his grandson, granting amnesty to sorcerers, murderers, and adulterers.

Apr 28, 323 Law 78
CTh 7.1.1 Dorries p. 186
The punishment for treachery is being burned alive.

Apr 28, 323 Law 79
CTh 7.12.1 Dorries p. 186
Unauthorized leaves of absence are punished with deportation or confiscation of property or, if the absence places the borders in danger, death.

May 25, 323 Law 80: To Helpidius
CTh 16.2.5 Dorries p. 186
Clergy and other church servants who give in to force and take part in unchristian sacrifices are to be whipped or fined.

Apr 24, 324 and May 9, 328 Law 81: Chalcedonian and Macedonian edict and to Aemilianus, the praetorian prefect
CTh 11.16.3-4 Dorries p. 187
Legislation in favor of the socially deprived.

May 16, 324 Law 83: To Constantius, the praetorian prefect
CTh 15.14.1 Dorries p. 187
The laws of Licinius are repealed and only ancient laws and those of Constantine are in effect.

After Sept 18, 324 Third inscription at Rome: The arch of St. Peter's Basilica
CIL VI p.X Nr.6,pXXIX; ICUR N.S. II 1,4092; ILCV 1752
Gruenewald 263
Dedicating the church to the One whose leadership raised the world triumphantly to the stars.

Sept 18-Nov 11, 324 Inscription at Serino
AE 1939,151 Gruenewald 277
Refurnishing the aqueduct.

After Nov 8, 324 Fourth inscription at Rome: The cross of St. Peter's Basilica

ICUR N.S. II 1,4093 Gruenewald 264
Building a gleaming royal temple.

Late 324 Edict to the provincials of Palestine
VC 2.24-42 Silli 16; Dorries p. 43-50
Demonstrating the superiority of Christianity and publishing many various laws.

Late 324 First letter to Eusebius
VC 2.46.1-3; SOC 1.9; THE 1.15.1-2; GEL 3.3.1-4; EH 8.27 Silli 17; Dorries p. 55
Instruction to repair damaged churches or erect new ones.

Late 324 Edict to the eastern provincials
VC 2.48-60 Silli 18; Dorries p. 51-54
Demonstrating the righteousness of Christianity.

Late 324 Letter to Alexander and Arius
VC 2.64-72; SOC 1.7; GEL 2.4.1-13; EH 8.13; CAS 1.19 Silli 19; Dorries p. 55-62; Opitz 17
Promoting peace from doctrinal debate.

Jan 16-31, 325 Letter to the synod gathered at Ancyra
Codex Brit Lib Add 14526 and 14528; Codex Parisinus syriacus 62 Silli 20; Dorries p. 62; Schwartz p. 289; Schulthess p. 1; Opitz 20
Urging them to now assemble for the council in Nicaea.

Jan 16-31, 325 Letter about the synod celebrated at Nicaea
KAU 2.1 Silli 21
Explaining why the upcoming council is to be held at Nicaea.

Feb 12, 325 Law 84: To all the provincials
CTh 15.14.2 Dorries p. 187
Legitimate acts of the tyrant and his judges remain in effect.

Apr 17, 325 Law 85: To Dracilianus, the acting praetorian prefect
CTh 2.33.1 Dorries p. 187
Interest for borrowed crops is set at 50%, but the creditor can forego this.

325 Opening address at Nicaea
VC 3.12; GEL 2.7.1-41 Dorries p. 62-66
An appeal for peace.

After June 19, 325 Letter to the catholic church of Alexandria
ATH 38; SOC 1.9; GEL 2.37.1-9; CJ; TD A.3 Silli 22; Dorries 68-70; Opitz 25
Happily reporting that the Council of Nicaea had unanimously confessed the truth and condemned Arius.

After June 19, 325 Letter to the churches
VC 3.17-20.2; SOC 1.9; THE 1.10; GEL 2.37.10-22; EH 8.25 Silli 23; Dorries p. 66-68; Opitz 26
Exhortation to follow the unanimous example of the Council of Nicaea.

After June 19, 325 Second letter to Eusebius
VC 4.35 Silli 24
Praising his discourse about Easter.
July 11 and Oct 7, 325 Law 86: To Maximus and to Constantius, the praetorian prefect
CTh 12.1.10-11 Dorries p. 187
Denying the right to leave the curia for a military career.

Sept 17, 325 Law 87: To all the provincials
CTh 9.1.4 Dorries p. 187-188
Encouraging people to come forth and make complaints against people of his closest circle.

Sept 17, 325 Law 88: To Aurelius Helladius

CTh 11.39.1 Dorries p. 188
 In cases of uncertain evidence, the person currently in possession must show proof.

Oct 1, 325 Law 89: To Maximus, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 15.12.1 Dorries p. 188
 Gladiatorial games are to be put to an end, with mine work replacing it as a punishment.

Nov-Dec, 325 Letter to the catholic church of Nicomedia against Eusebius and Theognis
 ATH 41; GEL 1.11.22-31; THE 1.20.1-10; CJ; CAS 2.22.5-16 Silli 25; Dorries p. 70-74; Opitz 27
 Setting forth his own belief in Christ's true divinity and blaming Eusebius for the current conflict.

Nov-Dec, 325 Letter to Theodotus
 ATH 42; GEL 3 App 2 Silli 26; Dorries p. 76-77; Opitz 28
 Informing him that Eusebius and Theognis have been condemned and so their advice should be discounted.

End of 325-Jan 326 Letter to Publilius Optatianus Porphyrius
 PUB Silli 27; Dorries p. 127-128
 Thankfully accepting the poems dedicated to him and offering his own opinions on poetry.

Jan 31, 326? Law 90: To the people
 CTh 3.2.1 Dorries p. 189
 Those who owe debts to one creditor cannot have their goods confiscated by someone else.

Feb 3, 326 Law 91: To Africanus
 CTh 9.7.1 Dorries p. 189
 Because of their lowly status, barmaids are outside of adultery laws.

Feb 3, 326 Law 92: To Evagrius, the praetorian prefect
 CJ 9.4.2 Dorries p. 189
 Imprisonment can only be sentenced after public testimony.

March 15, 326 Law 93
 CTh 3.30.3 Dorries p. 189-190
 House slaves are not to be sold without compelling reasons.

c. first half of 326 Letter to the heretics
 VC 3.64-65 Silli 29; Dorries p. 82-84
 Removing from heretics the right to assemble.

Apr 13, 326 Law 94: To Vettius Rufinus, prefect of the city
 CTh 4.11.1a Dorries p. 190
 Thankless freedmen who act insolently towards their former master forfeit their freedom, but their children will remain free.

Apr 25, 326 Law 95: To Evagrius, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 9.7.2 Dorries p. 190
 Only a close relative can accuse a woman of adultery.

May 17, 326 Law 96: To Mecilius Hilarianus, commissioner of Lucania and Bruttium
 CTh 12.1.13 Dorries p. 190
 Only those who were soldiers over 20 years remain free.

May 22, 326 Law 97: To Maximus, prefect of the city
 CTh 9.1.5 Dorries p. 190-191
 Accusations must be put down in writing to start the judicial process.

May 23, 326 Law 98: To Severus, prefect of the city
 CTh 6.36.1 Dorries p. 191
 Court officials also have the privilege of the "camp stipend."

May 29, 326 Law 99: To the people

CTh 9.9.1 Dorries p. 191
 Women who become involved with or marry slaves are to be executed and the slaves burned.

June 1, 326 Law 100: To Ablavius, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 16.2.6 Dorries p. 191-192
 Freedom from public offices cannot come from appointment to the office of the clergy, but instead a poorer person should be appointed to positions in the church.

Jun 14, 326 Law 101: To the people
 CJ 5.26.1 Dorries p. 192
 No one may have a concubine in his home while his marriage still continues.

Jun 17, 326 Law 102: To Mastichianus, prefect of the provisions
 CJ 6.62.1 Dorries p. 192
 The estate of a ship captain who dies without a will does not go to the treasury but to the corporation of ship captains.

July 8, 326 Law 103: To Antochus, prefect of the guards
 CTh 15.14.3 Dorries p. 193
 Legitimate laws of past tyrants remain in effect, but those which he made contrary to the law are not.

326 Letter to Macarius
 VC 3.30-32; SOC 1.9; THE 1.17; GEL 3.5; EH 8.28 Silli 30; Dorries p. 84-86
 The church in Jerusalem should be the most beautiful in the world.

Aug 27, 326 Law 104: To Menander
 CTh 4.13.3 Dorries p. 193
 Creating a middle state between slave and free for the children of such mixed marriages.

Sept 1, 326 Law 105: Edict about the immunity of the catholic clergy to Dracilianus
 CTh 16.5.1 Dorries p. 39-40, 193
 Religious privileges only apply to observers of catholic law, and heretics and schismatics are subject to various public duties.

Sept 18, 326 Law 106: To Ablavius, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 13.5.5
 Dorries p. 193
 Ship captains are freed from all burdens and duties.

Sept 25, 326 Law 107: To Bassus
 CTh 16.5.2
 Dorries p. 193-194
 Novatians are not to be precondemned to the point that their requests are not given audience and their houses and cemeteries are to be left undisturbed, but they cannot lay claim to anything which belonged to the church prior to the dispute.

Dec 10, 326-Dec 9, 327 Fifth inscription at Rome
 CIL VI 3789, 31388 Gruenewald 253

326-Dec 25, 333 Inscription at Ostia
 CIL XIV 133 Gruenewald 266

March 6, 327 Law 108: To Julianus, prefect of the city
 CTh 6.4.2 Dorries p. 194
 Adult members of the upper class are required to put on the games, but minors are released of this responsibility.

327-328 Digest of letters to the people of Antioch
 VC 3.59 Dorries p. 88-89
 Encouraging peace and godliness and pardoning past conduct.

Early 328 Fragments of a letter to Alexander, bishop of Alexandria

GEL 3.15.1-5; Silli 31 Dorries p. 80; Opitz 32
 Reporting the repentance of Arius and commanding that former heretics who later confess the truth be forgiven.

c. Jun 328 Part of a letter to the people of Alexandria about the election of Athanasius
 Codex Angelicus Gr 22.36b Silli 32; Dorries p. 94-95
 Approving and ratifying his appointment to the episcopate.

Oct 21, 328 Law 42: To Dionysius
 CTh 9.34.4 Dorries p. 174
 Anonymous accusations endangering people's lives are forbidden.

Dec 29, 328 Law 109
 CJ 1.40.2 Dorries p. 194
 When a powerful person tires the provincial governors with their arrogance, this should be reported so as to be handled with the appropriate discipline.

329-332 Inscription at Ain Rehine
 AE 1981,878 Gruenewald 133

Aug 13, 329 Law 110: To the people
 CJ 1.19.3 Dorries p. 194
 Nothing can be requested which is contrary to the treasury or the law.

Aug 18, 329 Law 111
 CJ 4.43.2 Dorries p. 194-195
 Newborn children can be sold by impoverished parents, but they retain the right to buy the child back for the same price or by substituting a replacement.

Feb 5, 330 Law 112: Edict about the expansion of immunity to the consular Valentinus of Numidia
 CTh 16.2.7 Dorries p. 40, 195
 Granting exemptions for clergy.

Feb 5, 330 Letter to the bishops of Numidia
 HD App 10 Silli 33; Dorries p. 40-43
 Stating that catholic basilicas stolen by the Donatists should not be disturbed and instead new ones constructed.

Apr 29, 330 Law 113: To Valerianus, the acting prefect
 CTh 3.5.3 Dorries p. 195
 Widows inherit their husbands property even if a will does not document this.

Jun 20, 330 Law 114: To Bassus, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 2.26.2 Dorries p. 195
 Whoever takes part of someone else's field must pay back twice as much.

July 16, 330 Law 115
 Frag Vat 248 Dorries p. 195
 Children who do not take care of their parents will have what they have received from them taken and returned to the parents.

330 Letter to Shapur, king of Persia
 VC 4.9-13; THE 1.25.1-11; GEL 3.11.1-11; EH 8.38 Silli 34; Dorries p. 125-127
 Denouncing idolatry and persecution and expressing loving appreciation for the blessings enjoyed by the Christians.

Nov 29, 330 Law 116: To Ablavius, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 16.8.2 Dorries p. 195-196
 Synagogue leaders are exempt from all personal and civil duties and cannot be forced out of their positions.

330-331 Letter to Macarius and the other bishops of Palestine

VC 3.52-53 Silli 35; Dorries p. 86-88
 Instructing them to destroy the idolatrous altars at Mamre.

330-331 Letter to the people of Antioch
 VC 3.60 Silli 36; Dorries p. 89-92
 Directing them not to take away Eusebius of Caesarea to be their bishop.

330-331 Third letter to Eusebius at the request for the bishopric of Antioch
 VC 3.61 Silli 37; Dorries p. 93-94
 Praising him for turning down the bishopric of Antioch.

330-331 Letter to Theodotus, Theodore, Narcissus, Aetius, Alpheius, and the other bishops who are in Antioch
 VC 3.62 Silli 38; Dorries p. 92-93
 Denouncing the attempt to make Eusebius bishop of Antioch.

Jun 30, 331 Inscription at Orcistus
 CIL III 352, 7000; ILS 6091; MAMA VII 305; FIRA 195 Dorries p. 212-214; Gruenewald 446, p. 147-150
 A letter to the city granting its request to be restored to its ancient city status, another to Ablabius affirming the same, and a third to the city liberating them from paying tax to Nacolea.

Apr 17, 331 Law 117: To Ablavius, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 5.9.1 Dorries p. 196
 Whoever takes in and raises a child who has been put out has the rights to him and is not required to return him to his parents or master.

Aug 4, 331 Law 118
 CJ 12.47.1 Dorries p. 196
 Officials' sons are bound to follow in their father's profession.

Nov 1, 331 Law 119
 CJ 1.40.3 Dorries p. 196
 Public acclamation is introduced into the court process.

331 Law 120: To Ablavius, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 3.16.1 Dorries p. 196-197
 Limiting lawful grounds for divorcing a man to murder, witchcraft, and graverobbing and divorcing a woman to adultery, witchcraft, and prostitution.

Feb 22-March 6, 332 Letter to the people of the catholic church of Alexandria
 ACA 61-62; THE 1.27; GEL 3.16.1-3 Silli 39; Dorries p. 96-99
 Encouraging them to show Christian love instead of following the example of wicked men.

May 30, 332 Law 121: To Maximus, the praetorian prefect
 CJ 6.36.7 Dorries p. 197
 Since codicils and testaments are the same thing they are given the same weight.

Oct 17, 332 Law 122: To Tiberianus, count of Spain
 CJ 6.1.6 Dorries p. 197
 Setting torture as the proper way to ascertain truth from slaves.

332-333 Digest of a letter to the censor Dalmatius
 ACA 65.1 Dorries p. 99
 "Requiring him to institute a judicial enquiry" about Athanasius' alleged murder of Arsenius.

May 5, 333 Law 123
 CS 1 Dorries p. 197-199
 The judgments of the bishop are final.

333 Fourth letter to Eusebius about the restoration of the divine

books
 VC 4.36; SOC 1.9; THE 1.16.1-4; GEL 3.4.1-5; EH 8.27; CAS 2.16.1-5 Silli 40; Dorries p. 81-82
 Instruction to prepare more copies of the Scriptures in Constantinople.

333 First letter to Athanasius
 ACA 59.6; SOC 1.27; SOZ 2.22.5; GEL 3.14; EH 8.48 Silli 41; Dorries p. 95-96
 Threatening to depose him if he excluded from the church those who wished to enter its communion.

333 Edict to the bishops and people against Arius
 ATH 39; SOC 1.9; GEL 2.36.1-2; EH 8.25; CAS 2.15; EOMIA 1.2.4a,b; HNI 1.1; KAU 2.1; SM 6-7 Silli 42; Dorries p. 112-113; Opitz 33
 The followers of Arius should be called Porphyrians and all their writings burned.

333 Letter to Arius and the Arians with him
 ATH 40; GEL 3.19; EPI heresy 69.9.4 Silli 43; Dorries p. 103-112; Opitz 34
 Pleading with him to end his madness and return to the church.

Sept 27, 333 Document Law 124: To the people
 CTh 13.3.3 Dorries p. 199-200
 Doctors and professors are exempt from all public duties.

Nov 27, 333 Letter to Arius
 SOC 1.25; EH 8.47 Silli 44; Dorries p. 77-78; Opitz 29
 Summoning him to the court.

Dec 12, 333-May 22, 337 Inscription at Muzuc
 CIL VIII 12064 Gruenewald 143

Dec 25, 333-Sept 18, 335 Inscription at Spello
 CIL XI 5265; AE 1967,112; ILS 705; ILCV 5
 Dorries p. 209-211; Gruenewald 236, p. 150-153
 Granting the city Hispellum the name "Flavia Constans" and the right to build a temple so that their priests would not have to travel to Tuscia.

Dec 25, 333-May 22, 337 Inscription at Goren Chiflik
 SGLIB 150 Gruenewald 411

End of 333-334 Second letter to Athanasius
 ACA 68 Silli 45; Dorries p. 99-102
 Declaring the Melitians' accusations against Athanasius to be false.

333-334 Letter to John
 ACA 70.2 Silli 46; Dorries p. 102-103
 Commending him for his return to the church and granting him use of public conveyance to come to him.

Apr 29, 334? Law 125: To Gerulus, accountant of three provinces
 CTh 2.25.1 Dorries p. 200
 Slaves are not to be separated from their families as masters divide up inheritance.

May 19, 334 Law 126: To Veronicianus, vicar of Asia
 CTh 8.1.4 Dorries p. 200
 Finance officials may only hold this position 20 years and are subject to various tortures if they are greedy or fraudulent.

May 19, 334 Law 127: To Veronicianus, vicar of Africa
 CTh 8.15.2 Dorries p. 200
 Finance officials cannot make purchases, and purchases made through extortion have no validity.

July 5, 334 Law 128: To Pacatianus, the praetorian prefect

CTh 10.15.2 Dorries p. 200
Placing the interests of a subject over those of the treasury.

Aug 25, 334 Law 129: To governor Julianus
CTh 11.39.3 Dorries p. 200-201
Witnesses must confirm their testimony with oaths, and multiple witnesses are required for substantiation.

Aug? 27?, 334 Law 130: To Felix
CTh 13.4.1 Dorries p. 201
To encourage more people to become architects, 18 year-old who chose that profession receive a suitable salary and they and their parents are exempt of all personal duties.

Dec 1, 334 Law 131: To the easter ship owners
CTh 13.5.7 Dorries p. 201
Granting privileges to the ship captains so they more willingly transport supplies for the cities.

335 Letter to the holy synod of Tyre
VC 4.42; THE 1.29.1-6; GEL 3.17.1-7
Silli 47; Dorries p. 114-117
Encouragement to deal with such accidental errors in a synod before it is too late.

Aug 4, 335 Law 132: To Felix, the praetorian prefect
CTh 12.1.21 Dorries p. 201
No one who has obtained the rank of priest or magistrate may be forced to domestic service.

Sept 335 Letter to the bishops in Jerusalem
SOZ 2.27.13-14 Dorries p. 117-118
Asking them to examine and evaluate the confession of faith submitted by Arius and Euzoius.

Oct 1, 335 Law 133: To Felix, the praetorian prefect
CJ 4.62.4 Dorries p. 202
Greedy taxfarmers are punished with permanent exile.

Oct 30, 335 Letter to the bishops gathered in Tyre
ACA 86.2-12; SOC 1.34; SOZ 2.28.2-12; GEL 3.18.1-13; EH 8.50; CAS 3.7.2-13 Silli 48; Dorries p. 119-124
Summoning the bishops to appear before him to answer for the council's contentious behavior towards Athanasius.

Apr 29, 336 Law 134
CTh 4.6.2 Dorries p. 202
Denying illegitimate sons the right to inherit and removing Licinius from his former exalted status.

July 21, 336 Law 135: To Gregorius
CTh 4.6.3 Dorries p. 202
It is scandalous and invalid for senators, duumvirates, and priests to include illegitimate sons among their legitimate sons. Licinius' son, who fled and now was caught, is to be brought in chains to a workhouse in Carthage.

Aug 22, 336 Law 136: To Evagrius, the praetorian prefect
CTh 12.1.22 Dorries p. 202
Palace officials are bound to their status.

Oct 9, 336 Law 137: To Gregorius, the praetorian prefect
CTh 11.1.3 Dorries p. 202
The judges must personally sign off on customs taxes.

Oct 21, 336 Law 138: To Felix, the praetorian prefect
CS 4 Dorries p. 203
Non-Jewish slaves who are circumcised by their Jewish masters are freed. Jews who become Christians are protected from other Jews.

c. 336-337 Law 139: To Felix, the praetorian prefect
 CTh 16.9.1, 16.8.5 Dorries p. 203-204
 Non-Jewish slaves who are circumcised by their Jewish masters are freed. Jews who become Christians are protected from other Jews.

Feb 24, 337 Law 140: To Aurelius, duke of Mesopotamia
 CJ 4.42.1 Dorries p. 204
 Death is the penalty for all future eunuchizings.

Early 337 Sixth inscription at Rome
 AE 1934,158 Gruenwald 260

May 21, 337 Law 141: To the council of the province of Africa
 CTh 12.5.2 Dorries p. 204
 Those who have been priest and duumvirs are exempt from lower duties.

May 22-Sept 9, 337 Inscription at Cilium-Thelepte
 CIL VIII 21934 Gruenewald 224

Aug 2, 337 Law 142 (published posthumously)
 CTh 13.4.2 Dorries p. 204-205
 Skilled artists are freed from service responsibilities so that they can spend their time furthering their talent and training their sons.

? Law 143
 Nov. Theod. 11 Dorries p. 205
 Denying the validity of wills made by mothers who neglect their sons.
 Good Friday, ? Address to the assemblies of the saints
 Appended to VC Dorries p. 129-161
 Discussing Christianity and idolatry, especially the person and coming of Christ including reference to pagan prophecy .

323-324 Letter to Alexander, bishop of Jerusalem
 CCS Tract 1, Chap 3 Silli 14
 Summoning him concerning the question of the two bishops who disturb him daily.

July 324 Letter about the synod celebrated at Nicaea
 BA 1.4; CCS Tract 1, Chap 3 Silli 15
 Bidding all bishops come to the upcoming council of Nicaea and that no on prevent any of them from attending.

c. 326 Letter to Empress Helen
 AS; CF Chap 2 Silli 28
 Urging quietness instead of rashness in the matter of understanding God.